RE: Register Today for CIPA's Annual Federal Legislative Call-Up, March 29-31, 2011, Washington, D.C.

Join CIPA in Washington D.C. March 29-31 for its annual Federal Legislative Call-up. This year's trip will provide you an excellent opportunity to meet with key decision makers at the federal level while helping shape our nation's energy future. Learn the issues concerning California's oil and gas industry while networking with your peers during this important annual event. All CIPA members are invited and encouraged to join the association's advocacy and leadership in Washington. Given an array of issues impacting our industry, including Presidential tax recommendations and changes in Congressional Leadership, it is critical we are represented by a large delegation!
