General Information

Engage! It's the buzzword for CIPA's 2012 Annual Meeting. We're enlivening the business program to make it even more engaging, enticing, entertaining and enjoyable. Come see what's new!

Our meeting provides a full day of engaging educational content during our General Session, including presentations from:

- Texas Governor Rick Perry, presenting his views on the state of U.S. energy policy and the political outlook for 2012.
- Professor Michael Economides, University of Houston, addressing Federal energy policy.
- Mr. Steve Trammel, Senior Manager of Industry Affairs for IHS, presenting "The Oil & Gas Supply Renaissance: Delivering on a Promise."

Our enticing networking opportunities, including golf, wine tasting, and entertaining social events, are consistently rated as among the best in the industry.

Our Friday night event at Miramar includes an engrossing pilot-led tour of a working hangar where you'll get an up-close look at one of many fighter/strike aircraft followed by dinner at the Officers Club.

You'll encounter hundreds of leaders and decision-makers in the California oil and natural gas industry to share ideas with.
